

Conflict

of Interest

Policy

June 4, 2021, R1

1. PURPOSE

Pickleball BC strives to reduce and eliminate all instances of conflict of interest by being aware, prudent and forthcoming about potential conflicts. This policy describes how individuals will conduct themselves in matters relating to conflict of interest and will clarify how individuals shall make decisions in situations where conflict of interest may exist.

2. CONTEXT/BACKGROUND

Individuals who act on behalf of Pickleball BC have a duty first to Pickleball BC and second to any personal stake they have in the operations of the Pickleball BC. For example, in not-for-profit organizations, Directors are required, by law, to act as a trustee (in good faith or in trust) of Pickleball BC. Directors and other stakeholders, must not put themselves in positions where making a decision on behalf of Pickleball BC is connected to their own “pecuniary” or “non-pecuniary” interests. That would be a conflict-of-interest situation.

3. APPLICATION

This Policy applies to all individuals participating in Pickleball BC as directors, employees or committee members.

4. COMING INTO FORCE

This policy shall come into force May 7, 2021.

5. ROLES/RESPONSIBILITIES

Any real or perceived conflict of interest, whether pecuniary or non-pecuniary, between an individual’s personal interest and the interests of Pickleball BC, shall always be resolved in favour of Pickleball BC.

Individuals will not:

- Engage in any business or transaction or have a financial or other personal interest, that is incompatible with their official duties with Pickleball BC, unless such business, transaction or other interest is properly disclosed to Pickleball BC and approved by Pickleball BC

- Knowingly place themselves in a position where they are under obligation to any person who might benefit from special consideration or who might seek preferential treatment.
- In the performance of their official duties, give preferential treatment to family members, friends, colleagues or organizations in which their family members, friends or colleagues have an interest, financial or otherwise.
- Derive personal benefit from information that they have acquired while fulfilling their official duties with Pickleball BC, if such information is confidential or not generally available to the public.
- Engage in any outside work, activity or business or professional undertaking that conflicts or appears to conflict with their official duties as a representative of Pickleball BC or in which they have an advantage or appear to have an advantage based on their association with Pickleball BC.
- Without the permission of Pickleball BC use property, equipment, supplies or services for activities not associated with the performance of their official duties with Pickleball BC.
- Place themselves in positions where they could, by virtue of being a Pickleball BC member, influence decisions or contracts from which they could derive any direct or indirect benefit.
- Accept any gift or favour that could be construed as being given in anticipation of or in recognition for any special consideration granted by virtue of being a Pickleball BC member.

6. IMPLEMENTATION

On an annual basis, Pickleball BC's Board of directors, employees and committee members will complete a Declaration Form disclosing any real or perceived conflicts that they might have. Declaration Forms shall be retained by Pickleball BC.

Individuals shall disclose real or perceived conflicts of interest to Pickleball BC's Board of Directors (the Board) immediately upon becoming aware that a conflict of interest may exist.

Individuals shall also disclose all affiliations with all other organizations involved with the same sport. These affiliations include any of the following roles: athlete, coach, manager, official, employee, volunteer, officer or director.

6.1 Minimizing Conflicts of Interest in Decision-Making

Decisions or transactions that involve a conflict of interest that has been proactively disclosed by an individual will be considered and decided with the following additional provisions:

- The nature and extent of the individual's interest has been fully disclosed to the body that is considering or making the decision and this disclosure is recorded or noted.
- The individual does not participate in discussion on the matter.
- The individual abstains from voting on the decision.
- For board-level decisions, the individual does not count toward quorum.
- The decision is confirmed to be in the best interests of Pickleball BC.

For potential conflicts of interest involving employees, the Board will determine whether there is a conflict and, if one exists, the employee will resolve the conflict by ceasing the activity giving rise to the conflict. Pickleball BC will not restrict employees from accepting other employment contracts or volunteer appointments provided these activities do not diminish the employee's ability to perform the work described in the employee's job agreement with Pickleball BC or give rise to a conflict of interest.

6.2 Conflict of Interest Complaints

Any person who believes that an individual may be in a conflict-of-interest situation should report the matter, in writing (or verbally if during a meeting of the Board or any committee), to the Board, who will as quickly as possible decide appropriate measures to eliminate the conflict.

A Pickleball BC Board decision as to whether a conflict of interest exists will be governed by the following procedures:

- Copies of any written documents to be considered by the Board will be provided to the individual who may be in a conflict-of-interest situation.
- The individual who may be in a conflict-of-interest situation will be provided an opportunity to address the Board orally or if granted such right by the Board, in writing.
- The decision will be by a majority vote of the Board.

If the individual acknowledges the conflict of interest, the individual may waive the right to be heard, in which case the Board will determine the appropriate sanction.

6.3 Decision

After hearing and/or reviewing the matter, the Board will determine whether a conflict of interest exists and, if so, the sanctions to be imposed.

6.4 Sanctions

The Board may apply the following actions singly or in combination for real or perceived conflicts of interest:

- Removal or temporary suspension of certain responsibilities or decision-making authority.
- Removal or temporary suspension from a designated position.
- Removal or temporary suspension from certain teams, events and/or activities.
- Expulsion from Pickleball BC.
- Other actions as may be considered appropriate for the real or perceived conflict of interest.

Any person who believes that an individual has made a decision that was influenced by real or perceived conflict of interest may submit a complaint, in writing, to the Board to be addressed under Pickleball BC's Discipline and Complaints Policy.

Failure to comply with an action as determined by the Board will result in automatic suspension from Pickleball BC until compliance occurs.

The Board may determine that an alleged real or perceived conflict of interest is of such seriousness as to warrant suspension of designated activities pending a meeting and a decision of the Board.

7. RESULTS

Failure to adhere to this Policy may permit discipline in accordance with Pickleball BC's Discipline and Complaints Policy.
